

Making Sure

An adverb is a word which gives more meaning to a verb.

Adverbs sometimes need an extra word to make their meaning more precise.

Copy and complete the sentences using a suitable adverb for each from the box.

rather heavily	really hard	so loudly	less well	more often
quite noisily	very badly	most often	much harder

1. Our teacher told us not to talk _____.
2. The old lady fell _____.
3. We tried _____ to win the game.
4. Kylie _____ choose chips for tea.
5. After I was told off, I tried _____ with my writing.
6. The thirsty dog drank the milk _____.
7. Sara did her spellings _____. She did _____ than last week.
8. James smiles _____ than I do, but Kirsty smiles _____.