

Practise your punctuation:

Punctuate this passage. It is written in indirect speech, so inverted commas are not needed.

mr brown asked the salesman how much the new car was the salesman asked mr brown whether he had an old car to trade in mr brown replied that he had just had an accident and that his car had been badly damaged the salesman told him that it didn't matter as he was sure that they could agree a good price mr brown asked if he could go for a test run in the new car to try it out the salesman agreed but told him to take care because one smashed up car was enough