

Pronouns

Sometimes when we are talking about people or things we use pronouns instead of nouns.

me Pronouns may be singular (one person or thing)	us Pronouns may be plural (more than one person or thing)
you The pronoun you may be singular	you The pronoun you may be plural

Practice:

1. Copy the chart below. Write each pronoun in the correct column.

Singular pronouns	Plural pronouns
I	we

I - he - you - they - us - me - she - it - you - them - we - him - her

2. Write down:
 - (a) Two feminine pronouns (used only for females)
 - (b) Two masculine pronouns (used only for males)
 - (c) One neuter pronoun (used only for things)