

Term 6 - Week 4 - 22.06.20

Complex sentences

Making sure:

1. Sometimes a subordinate clause is introduced by pronoun who (when referring to a person) or pronoun which (when referring to an animal or a thing). Copy and complete these sentences using either who or which.

The first one have been done for you.

- a) I found the key which opens the old box.
b) Emma wrote to her _____ had sent her a present.
c) Amir is the boy _____ won first prize.
d) The police officer caught the thief, _____ had run away.
e) I found the missing bag, _____ had been lost.

2. Choose the most suitable subordinate clause to complete each sentence.

which had a hole in it - which was starving - who had stolen the money which was singing loudly - who had hurt her toe

- a) The girl _____ was punished by her Mother.
b) The old boat, _____, sank in the lake.
c) Emma, _____, was limping badly.
d) The bird, _____, was a lark.
e) The thin dog, _____, gobbled up all his food.