

Term 6 - Week 2 - 08.06.20

Adjectives: (prefixes and suffixes)

Prefixes can be placed at the beginning of some adjectives to give them the opposite meaning.

Sailing is legal.

Sailing is illegal.

Suffixes can be placed at the end of some nouns to turn them into adjectives.

There is danger in smuggling.

It is a dangerous occupation!

Practice:

1. Write the opposite of each of these adjectives by adding the prefix (in or im).

- | | | | |
|--------------|-------------|------------|--------------|
| a) expensive | b) patient | c) proper | d) formal |
| e) sane | f) mortal | g) mature | h) attentive |
| i) secure | j) possible | k) perfect | l) definite |

2. Copy these adjectives and match them to their meanings.

invisible	not perfect
impassable	not complete
imperfect	cannot be seen
indistinct	cannot be moved
incomplete	cannot be passed
inedible	not pure
immovable	not clear
impure	not good to eat