

Home survival weekly plans - Morpurgo

Hey Akshara, Alfie, Annabelle, Isabelle, Izzy and Jay

I hope you are all well and managed to pick up your packs from school.

My aim is to set you the same work that we are doing at school as much as I can. You all should now have the book 'Kensuke's Kingdom' by Michael Morpurgo, this is the book we will be using for guided reading and literacy. Every day, I will tell you what page you need to read to; you will have a reading comprehension task and then a writing task linked to what you have read. In class we will be doing destination reader, obviously you can't do this at home but try and use our strategies as you read (I will post a copy of the strategies on Class Dojo so you can remind yourself). For literacy, I will set the task on here, but will put any PowerPoints we use in class on Dojo so you are able to access them if you want to. Friday will be letter writing day – I will give you more information about this on Class Dojo ☺

Maths will carry on with how I set it last week, continuing with Ratio this week – I will put a link to White Rose Maths and you can watch the video relating to the topic we are looking at in class. I have included the work sheets in your pack, so just make sure you do the work sheet that matches the video you watch. You can find the answers online next to the video.

I won't set any topic activities for the afternoon as we now have the KS2 themed weeks so you can choose activities from that to do. What I will do though, is set you transition activities still as we will be doing them in class and I think it is important for you to do. You also have a blank work book and transition document – this is for you to work through as you like and make your own Craylands scrap book – be as creative as you like.

Mrs Wilkinson will be on Class Dojo during the day to look at your work, I will check it after school and I will respond to the private messages so you might not get a reply till the end of the day.

I hope this is okay and I hope you are all well.

Take care and stay safe

Mrs Francis

Literacy

Day 1 - planning balanced argument

Complete the chart with your reasons FOR and AGAINST.

FOR	AGAINST
It's a really exciting adventure and would be great fun.	It is scary, sailing into the unknown
One long holiday and no school.	Too much Mum and Dad.

Use the writing frame below to plan a balanced argument on sailing around the world - this just a template, edit it where you want.

I am not sure that sailing around the world with my family would be a good thing because...

On the other hand...

However...

One good thing about it would be...

Nevertheless...

Another point of view is...

In conclusion...

Day 3 - To identify unfamiliar words and describe their meaning.

In Chapter 1 of Kensuke's Kingdom the author, Michael Morpurgo, uses some challenging words.

1. Using a dictionary look up the meaning of the following words and write them in a table like the one below.

2. Then write a sentence using the word to show that you understand how to use it.

WORD	MEANING	SENTENCE
revelling
exhilarating
gibbered savaged redundant lunacy liability

Day 4 - Blooms

- Remember - Describe what happened to the family when they reached the Bay of Biscay?
- Remember/understand - Describe Michael's time so far on the Peggy Sue and how he is feeling.
- Apply - Read the descriptions of the photos Mum had developed on November 16th. Choose 2 to illustrate and write the descriptions underneath.
- Apply - Imagine you are Michael. Write a diary entry to describe how you feel after you find out about your father's plan to sail around the world. Include amazing adjectives.
- Apply - predict what you will think is going to happen in the story.
- Analysis - Choose 5 of Michael's openers, in his ship logs in chapter 3, that you think could be improved. Write down your suggestions
- Create - Michael is going to have all his lesson at sea from now on. Read about the school work his mother has planned for him. Design your perfect lesson to be learned at sea! What would you find out about?
- Create - Sketch an image of what you imagine the Peggy Sue to look like.
- Evaluate - Michael was very excited to visit Africa. How would you feel if you visited Africa? What would you like to see?
- Evaluate - Would you like to live on a boat? How do you think your life would be different? Write a paragraph explain your thoughts.

Maths Ratio - week 1

<https://whiterosemaths.com/homelearning/year-6/>

Scroll down to the bottom of the page, click on week 1 - it should be ratio then you can choose the correct lesson. Watch the video suggested in the grid above and then have a go at the questions on the sheet - the answers are there for you to check. Remember, you have the work sheets in your pack.

SPAG - Tuesday

Verbs

- Task 1
- Think of some really exciting verbs to complete these sentences.
- Our cat with the mouse for a while, then he suddenly on it.
- Archie onto the dance floor and at the nearest pretty girl.
- "Someone has the Kooh-i-Noor Diamond!" Joe.
- Tarzan was so hungry he a whole wild pig by himself.
- What a boy you are! Your dad will definitely you when we get home.

In these sentences replace the worn-out, over-used, dull, boring verbs with ones that are more exciting and evocative. (evocative means conjures up a picture).

1. Amy ran towards the finish line and burst through the tape.
2. Juliet said, "Romeo, Romeo, wherefore art thou Romeo?"
3. Ben went under the patio to look for the lost puppy.
4. Broccoli is something I really don't like.
5. The librarian put the books on the shelf in alphabetical order.

4. The frogs were croaking in Ben's face.
5. I'm going to get you!
6. I couldn't find the peg.
7. She'd like to meet you.

8. Can I see Sarah's homework please?
9. I can't do it!
10. Sally's hair is the prettiest.

1. Rewrite the following sentences in the possessive form.

EXAMPLE: the lunch that belongs to Joey → Joey's lunch.

- a. The phone that belongs to Anita → _____.
- b. The tools that belong to my dad → _____.
- c. The tail that belongs to the cat → _____.
- d. The house that David owns → _____.
